Foxview Stables offers boarding services, lessons and training as well as equine massage therapy and Equus coaching! Both horse and client needs are exceeded with sizeable paddocks and a spacious indoor arena which makes Foxview the perfect place for horses to live and clients to train. She also trains and coaches clients and their horses across the Ottawa region. Morgan trains with Jenna and competes in the jumpers in addition to attending the Ontario Veterinary College.

Jenna and "Pri"

Jenna is passionate about learning the science and biomechanics behind riding and horses. "I love watching horses and riders progress and the challenge of fixing problems that come up along the way. Seeing the horse understand and start to correctly execute the movement or exercise is very rewarding."

Jenna plans to show her current mount "Lex", a 12 year-old Oldenburg/Hanoverian gelding, in fourth level dressage or Prix St. Georges. She also has two youngsters in training that are proving to be great jumper prospects.

When it comes to nutrition, it is a priority for Jenna to ensure that individual horses' requirements are met. "One of the most important things in feeding sport horses is being able to give them enough calories yet keep their energy manageable. This is why we switched to Brooks in the first place. My sister's jumper is very hot and extremely hard to keep weight on. We tried Fibre O Plus and have never looked back. We switched all the horses to Brooks shortly after and are loving the results."

Jenna's future plans include competing in Grand Prix showjumping and Prix St. Georges as well as continuing to grow her coaching and training business.

Foxview has been dealing with Garry Thompson of GT Enterprises for delivery of their feed. "Garry has been an exceptional supplier for us. Delivery is always done in a timely fashion after an order is placed. The service and his attention to detail is great."

Thanks to Jenna and Foxview Stables for the kind words and for demonstrating the quality of Brooks Feeds. Young dedicated riders like Jenna and Morgan are why we continue to grow and provide the fuel for championship performances.
